

The Terrace

Nestled in the tangled streets of Dublin city lies a small row of terraced houses called St Endas Terrace. The residents of St Endas look out for each other but when the little terrace comes to the attention of a New York production company making a fly-on-the-wall documentary about Ireland to be aired on St Patricks Day, friendships and loyalties are about to be put to the test ... Two days before the camera crews arrive, five of the residents of St Endas win one million euro in the lotto. Trouble is that nobody can find the ticket ... Almost overnight, at once perfect community is brought to its knees. Secrets are discovered, lies exposed and a sequence of unfortunate events ensures that Endas will never be the same again. Would you want to risk losing everything that's dear to you to become a millionaire? One thing is for sure - it seems that somebody in Endas would!
